

HAND HYGIENE

HABITS

BEFORE COVID-19

65% used their laptop and keyboard without washing their hands after.

On average people washed their hands for 13 seconds, 5 times per day.

30% would sneeze into their hands and not wash their hands after.

47% never used hand sanitiser, either from a public dispenser or from carrying bottles.

19% would use a toilet away from home and not wash their hands after.

45% would cough and not wash their hands after doing so.

HAND HYGIENE

HABITS

AFTER COVID-19

Only 45% now use their laptop and keyboard without washing their hands after.

On average, people now wash their hands for 19 seconds, 8 times per day.

Now only 15% would sneeze into their hands and not wash their hands after.

50% now use more anti bacterial gel than before.