Washroom Care

With a mission to deliver a truly fantastic gaming experience Genting know that every detail, no matter how small contributes to the overall experience for customers. The cleanliness and services within the washroom all count towards a positive and enjoyable visit to one of Genting's many high quality Casinos.

With this in mind Genting turned to Citron Hygiene for a full range of washroom services.

The high standard of products and the quality service provided by Citron Hygiene work to underpin Genting's approach to their market. Supported by excellent account management, Head of Building Services, Graham Coley would recommend Citron Hygiene

We can't guarantee a win, but we can guarantee to do everything we can to deliver outstanding hygiene services for your washrooms and throughout your organisation.
